

Ria Benko is qualified as a pharmacist and received her PhD in clinical pharmacology/drug utilisation research.. Currently she is a practising clinical pharmacist at the emergency department and senior lecturer at the Clinical Pharmacy Department, University of Szeged, Hungary. Her main drug utilisation research focus is antibiotic prescribing. She is the secretary of EuroDURG since 2008.